Dear Miss Dollie

I am glad you wrote to Trissie, for I have found out your address

But I really do think you

might have sent me ^{out}, and hope you will soon.

I think it is ^avery nice one. I met Cecil Fawns in town the other day, he has not altered a bit since I first knew him, he was going up to Ross, with Mr. Skermode the next day.

Travers Riordan is staying with the others in

Hobart and ^{also} Miss

Jumbull, from Campbell town, her name is Anne I think. I went to church with her & Fannie last Sunday and have been stiff ever since. I suppose it is through doing what I am unaccustomed to. I suppose you are collecting all kinds of flowers & cutting for Rosedale, but what a chance Old Stavis will have to pull up your Sarnations beds etc, but I hope he will ^{not} damage that plant in the greenhouse you + I rigged up.

I heard something about I hit bolting with you, but could never get at the bottom of it, was it true or not?

Is Jack still at Armistead? or is he going over for the Cup.
I wrote to him the other day.

Please remember me to Mrs Jack, no I mean Mrs Foster & the baby, if she still remembers me. I ran up against your old Hair Ribbon man, the other day he declares you sent him his reward and that I stuck to it, that all the thanks I get for troubling myself on his account. Wishing you a jolly good time yrs sincerely Matt Seal, junr
