Have you ever tried to catch a Greasy Pig?

Dear Miss Dollie

As you will see, by the Postmark I am not back in Hobart, <sup>yet</sup> and so did not receive your letter, until the day before yesterday, it must have been at home<sup>2</sup> sometime before they re-posted, as it was written on the 18th Feb. I enclose a sketch of the Shouting young Lady and the Deaf John<sup>n</sup>ie, which will arrive too late, I suppose to be of any use, however I hope it is somewhat after the style, you wanted.

I'm glad you had such a jolly time in Melbourne, but very sorry you dont think Photos makes good Emas cards. It has just struck me, that perhaps "that awfully jolly girl" you have staying with you is tall and dark and wears a grey dress with forget-me-nots in her hat, so if so I do hope, ~~the~~ She will have gone before this sketch turn up, as I never can draw pretty girls, that why I have never tried to sketch you, you know. I suppose Campbell has sobered down ~~as~~ and the Tennis + Cricket matches, picnics

Sea Drinkings + Dance are all past. I hope the last was as tame as you predicted.

I think I am leaving <sup>here.</sup>
Tom a less than a week now.

I thought you were going down to staying with Mrs Jack this summer, but I should not be surprised, if Jack was afraid to have you, for fear you would want to nurse the Baby, have you ever help it <sup>her</sup> yet? Please remember me to Mrs Leake + Miss Bell + any Campbell + friends of <sup>mine</sup> yours. Hoping you are having a jolly good time
Yrs sincerely Math Seal Jun.
